

Out of Town Notes.

PULASKI NOTES.

Dr. Foust, pastor of the First Baptist Church (white), preached an able sermon on consecration at Beulah Baptist Church Sunday afternoon, February 16th. Mr. Harrison Pullen and Mrs. Maggie Ezell were married at Beulah Church at high noon. Rev. D. Howard officiated. The happy couple left for Cornersville, Tenn. Mr. Pullen is an industrious young man quiet and manly habits, and his wife, who was formerly a Mrs. Ezell, is an amiable woman who has made many friends since she moved here a few years ago. Mr. C. W. Jackson and Miss Gannell Sykes were quietly married on the 15th at the home of the bride's parents on McGrew street. Mr. Jackson is a native of this county, but for quite a while he has been out East, though for two years he has been at home with his parents. The bride has a host of friends here. Prof. J. T. Bridgeforth, of the Broadview School, was the officiating clergyman. The Ideal Art Club will hold its next meeting at the residence of Mrs. Mary Lou Burch on West Hemp street. Miss Hallie Murray entertained on the 16th instant with a little birthday party. Music was one of the features of the evening; a four-course menu was served. Those performing at the piano were Misses Florida Black and Eugene Murray. Those present were Miss Robert Lee Wilson, Josephine Jennings, Rebecca Davis, Dorinda Black, Julia May Givens and Masters Nathan Black, Guy Braden, Coten Howell and O. B. Davis, Jr. Every one expressed themselves as being highly entertained. Mr. Dave Gilbert, who has been somewhat indisposed, is much better. Miss Leola Folin and Mr. Frank Harwell were quietly married last Thursday night. While the affair was quiet and only a few knew of it, everybody is congratulating the happy couple and predicts a bright future and commends them both for their wise selection. They will make their future home in Decatur. Lincoln's birthday was appropriately celebrated on the 12th inst., by the Ladies' Relief Corps at Campbell's Chapel A. M. E. Church and everybody enjoyed the exercises. At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Dow Carter, on Friday evening, a Valentine Party was given by Miss Georgia E. Carter. Music and games were the features of the evening. The most interesting feature was the Memory Game. A prize was awarded to the successful one, who was Mr. George Phillips, after which a three-course menu was served. The following are those who enjoyed the hospitality: Mrs. Missouri Allen, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Martin, Messrs. James Smith, A. D. Howard, Jr., Ed. James, Nathaniel F. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips. Before their departure each one present expressed himself as having spent an enjoyable evening. Mr. John Ellis, of Decatur, Ala., was the guest of Miss Katherine Carter last Sunday evening.

MT. OLIVET NOTES.

The school at Mt. Olivet about four miles northeast of Greenfield is moving on very nicely. The enrollment has reached 50. Miss Mary M. E. Greer, of Martin, is teacher. The teachers attended the concert at the C. M. E. Church in town Tuesday night, February 11th. They enjoyed the same very much. The following are on the sick list: Miss Irene Mosley and Ivory Partee. On account of the rain Monday a week ago the children who lived on the other side of the creek were unable to get home from school. They were therefore taken care of by the children near the school. Mrs. Sarah Higgs and Mrs. Ada Sims visited their aunt, Mrs. Malinda Mosley, last week.

SHARON NOTES.

The following are on the sick list this week: Mrs. Bertha Bransfield, little Jesse Everline Tansil, Mary Etta Adams and Mrs. Alice Busby, little Erden and Clifton Winston. Mr. Emory Love is all smiles. The stork has come recently and left with him a brand new housekeeper who has a perfect right. All are doing well. Mr. Tansil Shull, who was shot some weeks ago, is getting on fairly well at this writing. The debate Tuesday night, the 11th, was very lively. The attendance was good, considering the weather. Subject: "Resolved, That Fire is More Destructive Than Water." Affirmative: Rev. Tom Tansil and Mr. Kelley. Negative: Messrs. Alex Rodgers and George Tansil.

Six Reasons Why You Should Use

RENWAR

Relieves all Rheumatic pains.
Enriches the blood.
Neutralizes Uric acid.
Warranted to cure.
Absolutely corrects constipation.
Recommended by all who have used it.

For sale by all

50c per bottle

Manufactured by

Warner Drug Co.

NASHVILLE, TENN.

Office Phone M 1885 Residence Phone Hemlock 1940

Miss One, Call the Other

Richard Hill

Real Estate-Notary Public

REAL ESTATE BARGAINS AND PENSION CASES A SPECIALTY

410 1-2 Cedar Street Nashville, Tenn.

Judges: Messrs. Lewis Rodgers, Bud

Beckett, Joe Carter and Percy Tansil. Result, a tie. The 50-word contest spelling at the school last Friday resulted as follows: Johnnie Hester and Georgia Adams, 100; George Hunt and Carrie Hall, 98; Eva Hester, 96; several were absent. Rev. L. C. Moore, pastor of the M. E. Church, preached a very practical sermon Sunday night. Text: "For I am with you even to the end of the world." He showed very plainly the injunction of this promise.

OGLESBY NOTES.

Rev. Harvey Stigler, one of Mt. Pisgah's leading citizens, is sick. The dairy of Samuel W. Rucker was destroyed by fire Thursday morning, February 13th, between eleven and one o'clock. Only a small amount of the furnishings was saved. About forty gallons of milk were also destroyed. Mr. Rucker is widely known and has a host of friends. He had an extensive milk and butter trade. He owned a well kept and well furnished dairy. It is thought that the fire originated from a flue. The church of Mt. Pisgah was crowded Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Rucker spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nolen, Mill street, Nashville. Mrs. Sam Tule is on the sick list. Mr. Ben F. Rucker, a student of Moharri, was here Sunday visiting relatives and friends.

HORTENSE NOTES.

Mr. Samuel Barry, of Nashville, returned home Saturday evening the out, after spending several days here with friends. Mr. E. W. Washington and Mr. J. H. Dickerson returned home from Nashville Monday. They were accompanied home by Miss Louise B. Suggs. Mrs. Bessie Darden is home again from Nashville visiting relatives and friends. Miss Jessie white, of Charlotte, Tenn., is here visiting Mrs. Ernestine Lanford. Services were good Sunday night. Misses Corrine Washington and Virgie Dickerson were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Washington Sunday. Mrs. Della Dickerson, who has been ill for several weeks, was carried over to Clarksville Monday morning, the 17, to Dr. Burt's infirmary for operation. She was accompanied by her husband, Mrs. G. B. Suggs and Dr. Miles, of Dickson, Tenn. Mrs. Lula Hill and Miss Tom Ella Robertson, of Dickson, were the guests of Mrs. Love Dickerson and her daughter, Virgie, Tuesday, the 11th.

FRANKLIN NOTES.

Canarian Art Club met in the home of Mrs. Estella Williamson, with the vice president, Miss Hattie Crutcher, presiding. The meeting was opened in proper form, with song and prayer, after which Bible verses were repeated. Some quite encouraging remarks were made by a number of ladies. After remarks each lady was engaged in needle work. Mrs. Robbie J. Hughes completed some very beautiful battenburg work. Atalate hour a dainty menu was served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. A. W. Merritt, when we hope to have all members present. Miss Mattie Kinnard, of Nashville, is at home with her mother, Mrs. Bettie Kinnard, very ill and has been visited by a number of friends and relatives.

COLUMBIA NOTES.

The auxiliary of the Duck River Association met with Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church the 14th, 15th and 16th. They had a very interesting and profitable session. The musical recital at St. John Baptist Church Tuesday evening, February 18th, in which Madam Gertrude Lawrence Madison appeared, was a success. Mrs. Madison will leave for the East. The music lovers of this city will regret her departure. Miss Millard Dillard has returned from Detroit, where she has been visiting relatives since the holidays. Mrs. Laura Brown, of Nashville, is here visiting her parents on North High street. Mrs. Clara Little has gone to Nashville for an indefinite stay. Mrs. A. Pearl Crews has returned from Nashville. Mrs. Fannie Fitzpatrick has gone to Nashville, where she was called to the bedside of her daughter, Miss Kate McCrady, who is quite ill. Miss Lizzie Fitzpatrick is confined to her room. Mrs. Fannie Mai Merrill, who has been quite ill, is much improved. The Valentine entertainment given by Mrs. Rankin Doyle Friday evening, February 14th, for the benefit of St. Paul A. M. E. Church was quite a success. The first prize was won by Miss Mildred Cammack; second, by Miss Portress Miller, and third, by little Turner Webster. The little folks enjoyed several games led by Mrs. Doyle and Miss Blanch Brown, after which they were invited into the dining-room, where an ice-course was served. At six o'clock the little ones departed for home, expressing themselves as having spent a very pleasant evening. Mr. John Thomas, one of the oldest citizens of this place, died after an illness of three months. His funeral was from the White-Spring Baptist Church. Quite a well banquet was given at the K. of P. hall Friday evening, February 14, by Messrs. Willard Dobbins and Willie Thomas in honor of the Senior Class of 1912 of the Columbia High School. It was quite a notable affair and not since the visit here of Prof. Rooker T. Washington, on November 20, 1909, have the citizens of Columbia witnessed such a treat. The Columbia colored orchestra consisting of Messrs. Chas. Bunch, Hirschel Hughes, James R. Porter and others furnished music for the occasion and all who wished to took a part in the dancing until a late hour, when the guests were invited into the large dining-room, where plates were laid for a hundred.

ALLEN'S CREEK NOTES.

Rev. J. W. Thompson preached an able sermon Sunday. Quite a number attended. The Sunday-school is in a prosperous condition. Grand Lecturer J. M. Easterling, of Chattanooga, was in town this week. He is the State Grand Lecturer of the K. of P. Lodge. Mr. Easterling is an able man. We ever delight to have him with us. He said many good things for the Order. While here he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. Smith. Mr. Ike Russell, one of the brick-masons here, is leaving today for Nunnally, his home. He has spent two months here, doing vbg vbgcm and Mrs. Daniel Mitchell. We are having some fine weather here, it is very much like spring.

MADISON STATION NOTES.

Rev. J. T. Gilmore, the pastor at Dry Creek, held his services Sunday. Rev. Shoot preached Sunday night to a crowded house. Mrs. Lizzie Martin, of Nashville, spent Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. Evie Bates. Mrs. Nettie Douglass was able to attend services Sunday. Little Miss Minnie L. Dower is very ill at this writing. Miss Sallie L. Gray was the guest of Mrs. Fannie Chattwood Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Evie Bates and daughter, Miss Marcella, Mesdames Nannie Love and Rachel Lewis spent Sunday in Nashville the guests of Mrs. Bates' sister, Mrs. Lizzie Martin. Dinner was served and in the afternoon music was rendered. Little Miss Katherine Martin and Miss Marcella Bates assisted Rev. James Webb in Sunday-school at Adam Chapel. Mrs. Lillian Johnson was the guest of Mrs. Mollie Franklin Monday morning. Mr. Lem Utley, of Goodlettsville, was the guest of Mr. Leo Bates Friday afternoon. Miss Sallie L. Gray, Mrs. Josie Benton, Miss Tennie Morgan, Miss Minnie L. Dower and Mr. Abe Gee were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bates and daughter, Marcella Bates, Sunday in Nashville. Mrs. Lillian Fisher and daughter, Miss Girdy M. Cole, were the guests of Mrs. Jessie Benton Sunday afternoon.

DRESDEN NOTES.

There is considerable excitement here over spinal meningitis. A Miss Sandefur died here this week with the disease. All public gatherings have been suspended for an indefinite length of time. Every effort possible is being made to prevent the spread of this malady. Mr. Elbert Templeton has sold his grocery to Mr. Willie Fitzgerald. Mr. M. F. Becket is erecting a handsome residence at a cost of $800. Arrangements are being made to set up a Knights of Pythias Lodge here. Promotion examination was held the 6th and 7th of this month. Seven pupils will be promoted to the secondary department this year: Annie Gardner, average, 96; Annie Neal Gardner, average, 92; Ida Gardner, average, 94; Mayce Fowler, average, 96; Katie Kellum, average, 95; Hattie Turner, average, 83; Irene Turner, 87; closing exercises, February 27th and 28th.

CLARKSVILLE NOTES.

The Valentine Social at Wesley Chapel under the management of Mrs. T. H. Copeland and Miss Corinne Harrison was quite a success. Services at Wesley Chapel Sunday are said to have been the best for this conference year. The pastor, Rev. T. H. Copeland, preached a sermon on "Baptism," after which twenty-two persons were baptized at the altar. At St. Paul A. M. E. Zion Church a "Camp Fire" was held in the afternoon as an echo from the great revival. Addresses were made by Rev. Wm. Harris, Rev. D. A. Graham, Rev. T. H. Copeland, Hon. Nace Dixon and the pastor, Rev. R. J. Buckner. The house was well filled and the meeting was a great success. The Wardrobe Club, or ladies' charity organization, held its anniversary at St. John Baptist Church last Sunday afternoon. The president, Mrs. Mattie Kelly, made an annual report, showing the great work which they have done in relieving suffering among the poor the past year. Addresses were made by Mrs. Addie Grant, Mrs. S. A. Dabney, Dr. R. T. Burt, C. A. Kelly, Prof. H. R. Merry and Revs. Wm. Harris, D. A. Graham and M. H. Holloway. Prof. Charles Stewart lectured to a full house at St. Peter A. M. E. Church last Tuesday night. Clarksville always gives Bro. Charley a good hearing.

PARIS NOTES.

A Tacky Party was given at Quinn Chapel A. M. E. Church, Friday night, February 14th, which furnished much laughter for the audience. Miss Lude G. Waddy received the prize for being the best dressed for the occasion. Miss Myrtle Katen left Sunday for McKenzie, her home, after spending a long visit with her aunt, Mrs. Izora Brown. Mr. Robt. Woodson left Friday evening for Nashville to see his mother, Mrs. Jennie Woodson, who has recently undergone an operation. Rev. T. W. Hampton spent Friday and Saturday here. Rev. G. P. Woodson is here, having spent several days in Nashville. Mrs. Mary Willis, the wife of Mr. George Willis, died Sunday morning at 5 o'clock after a brief illness. She leaves a husband, one son and a host of friends. The funeral will be from Quinn Chapel Tuesday, the 18th. Mrs. G. W. Hudson has been very ill; we wish her a speedy recovery. Mr. Leslie Miller is much improved after several weeks' illness. Mrs. Sallie Mosley is in Hot Springs, Ark., for her health.

GREENFIELD NOTES.

Mrs. Emma Coley made a flying trip to Jackson the second Sunday, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Nina Gammons. Mr. Cheek Stone left Monday a week ago for Wingo, Ky., to visit his brother. Hence who is ill. The concert given at the C. M. E. Church Tuesday night, 11th was a success. The sermon by Master Hodges Ford, the dialogues and songs made the occasion enjoyable and grand. This concert was given under the auspices of Mrs. Myrtle Ward and Mrs. Viola Allen's club. The conductors and participants deserve commendation for their excellent rendition. Weekly S. S. Teachers' meetings have been organized in our town. The first meeting was at L. M. Ransom's; the next at Mrs. Millie Gleason's; the last at Mrs. Mary Mathis. A deeper interest has been realized in the Sunday-schools from this united effort. Everyone is invited to attend these meetings Friday night. Mr. Allen Hornbeak left Sunday for Morganfield, Ky., to visit the bedside of his nephew, Mr. Babe Hornbeak, who is very ill. Estes Chapter O. E. S. will have their Annual Sermon on the third Sunday in March (Palm Sunday). Rev. S. M. Strayhorn of Martin will deliver this sermon. Rev. Strayhorn has been here before on a similar occasion. He is always welcome.

McEWEN NOTES.

Last week was a sad time in our town. After three days' illness of Mrs. Ann Washington on Tuesday afternoon, she fell asleep in death which was very shocking to all the people of our town. She left seven children; five girls and two boys and a host of friends. The funeral was held at the A. M. E. Church and was attended by Rev. Haynes of Dickson, Tenn. Mrs. Maggie Walker of Centerville, Tenn., and Mr. Wiley Pitan and his sister of Baldo Spring spent a few days in town. On account of heavy rain, the roads are almost past traveling. On next Sunday, Rev. R. Vann, Presiding Elder will hold his second quarterly conference on the White Oak Circuit, Rev. J. M. Ewell is the pastor. A host of young people went to Gorman last Saturday night to a reception. They reported a good time. Mrs. Arriker Farcie has returned to Nashville. Those who are ill are: Miss Florence Fentris, R. Duncan and Cabert Adams of Whitaker. We are planning big things for Easter.

LEBANON NOTES.

The officers of the Star Temple Lodge No. 123, K. of P. had a grand time at the Hall Saturday night. Dr. J. P. Crawford, G. C. C. was present and installed the officers. The Grand Lecturer, J. M. Easterling, of Chattanooga also was present to lecture to the Knights after which there was a banquet. Sir H. J. Eetty and Miss Lillie M. Officer, Dr. Joseph Turner made a flying trip to Nashville. Little Miss Betty entertained handsomely with a party at her home Wednesday evening. Mr. J. C. Whitely was the guest of the Misses Hughes Friday afternoon. Prof. Clemmons was here Saturday. Mr. J. C. Whitely and the Misses Hughes, Miss Jennie V. and Florence will spend Sunday, February 23rd in Rome, where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hallums, the prosperous farmer of Rome. Dr. Joseph Turner's patient on Rome Pike is much improved.

LAWRENCEBURG NOTES.

Rev. J. H. Thompson preached a noble sermon at St. John M. E. Church Sunday. The Sunday-school is still progressing. Mr. John Franks of the 14th District was with us in Sunday-school. The lesson was quite interesting. Rev. S. Green, travelling evangelist preached at St. John M. E. Church Friday night. Rev. H. C. Witch and Mrs. Emma Wigfall are now able to be up. Mrs. Moses Provine and Mr. W. B. Haynes are better. Miss Laura Ross is on the sick list. Rev. J. F. R. W. Sumnerhill is still improving. Miss Jennie Wigfall has returned to Anderson, Ala., after spending a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. Emma Wigfall.

SPARTA NOTES.

Sunday was a fine day and the different churches were well attended. Mrs. Cassie Scott is very ill at this writing. Mr. and Mrs. Wirt Nowlin are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl. Miss Willie Partes is visiting in McMinnville. Mr. Roswell Puryear of McMinnville was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dunsen Saturday and Sunday. Miss Drady Webb has returned from Rowland. Mrs. Selena Brooks of McMinnville returned home to-day after a visit to her mother, Mrs. Margaret Webb. Misses Florence Beason, Nannie Mills, Novella York and Leatha Clark visited Mrs. Lue Allen Sunday. Rev. J. S. Norris preached at Ravenscroft Monday. Rev. Wm. Holder and wife were in our town Monday. Mr. Levie Bates has returned home after a visit to friends here. Mrs. Mary J. Cummings spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Lizzie Randles. Mr. Thurman Richmond has been visiting our town. The people are expecting Mrs. Collier to visit her old friends. Mrs. Daisie Killingsworth is preparing to leave our town. She has been here for some time. Mrs. Alice Johnson who has been very ill is improving. Miss Sadie Mogord gave a birthday party inviting her schoolmates.

MT. JULIET NOTES.

Mrs. Gatsy Jackson, who has been very ill is now improving. Sunday was a beautiful day. Mrs. Blanche McFarland, who has been at home for some time will return to Nashville Wednesday. Mrs. Mike Foster and Mrs. Amanda Williamson were called to the bedside of their sister last week. Mrs. Amanda Swingler has been called to Green to the bedside of her aunt, Mrs. Eliza Dibrell, who is very ill. Mr. Milton Jackson was the guest of Miss Hattie Branch Sunday. A number of young people enjoyed themselves at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Williamson last Sunday evening. Those present were Misses Mattie Hawkins, Izella Davis, Mary Williamson, Misses Novella, Nellie and Fannie Williamson. Messrs. Menchem Gleave Sammie Jones and many others. Misses Fannie Williamson and Izella Davis are planning to enter State Normal March 3rd. We wish them much success. Mrs. Rebecca Searcy was in our midst Monday. Rev. U. S. G. Brown is at home this week after spending two weeks in our

Have you tried our new drink?

BEERETTE

(NON-INTOXICATING)

A Wonderful product of the Brewing Art.
On Sale by the Glass and Bottle at Soft
Drink Stands. Bottled also for Family Use.

Delicious, Healthful and Nourishing

MADE ONLY BY

The Wm. Gerst Brewing Company

town. Mrs. Mattie Jarrett has returned to Nashville. Miss Mattie B. Gleave has returned to Nashville after a week's stay at home. Mrs. Sindy Searcy has returned home after a visit to her mother at Martha, Tenn. Mr. Charlie Searcy is very ill at this writing. Miss Mary Williamson was the guest of Miss Mattie Hawkins Sunday night. Mr. Albert Swingler was at church Sunday. We had a glorious Sunday-school Sunday. George Dibrell was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Beasley Sunday. A number of young people enjoyed themselves at the residence of Mrs. Lenace Lake Saturday evening. Mrs. Mary L. McClure, who has been ill for some time is slowly improving.

SMYRNA NOTES.
The public school of which Mrs. L. F. Ferguson is teacher, celebrated the birthday of Abraham Lincoln at the M. E. Church Wednesday. The Supervisor of the county schools was present and address the school. The pupils had a fine exhibit of industrial work. A good program was rendered by the pupils. The concert given by the young ladies and men of the Baptist Church Saturday evening was a great success. The central attraction of the affair was the Indian drill conducted by Misses Dora House, Lucinda Thompson, Addie L. Dillard and others. Rev. John E. Ridley of the Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Nashville, Tenn., organized a Metoka and Galeda class in the Mt. Zion Church Sunday-school. Rev. Ridley made a most interesting address on the work of these classes. We are always glad to have him with us. We feel that he belongs to us, as he was reared here. Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Wade entertained at dinner Sunday the following persons: Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Ridley, Revs. S. S. Cumby and A. L. Perry. Miss Sallie L. Battle spent the week-end with Mrs. Lucinda Jordan. Romeo Frieron has gone to Nashville to work. Rev. B. F. Ferrell of Nashville preached at the Baptist Church Monday night. Rev. Ferrell has been conducting a successful revival at this church and the community appreciates his good work very much. Rev. L. Tucker of Oklahoma was in our town. He made some good talks. This is his old home; it has been 37 years since he was here and his friends and relatives are glad to see him. He will return to Oklahoma soon.

TULLAHOMA NOTES.
Rev. N. B. Morton, the popular pastor of the A. M. E. Church has just closed a very successful rally at his church. Rev. Young filled the pulpit at the A. M. E. Church last Sunday night. Mrs. Ora Merderris and Barna Spars left for Nashville last Monday, where they will make their future home. Mrs. N. B. Morton is on the sick list this week. Mr. Louis Neal spent last Sunday with his wife and boy. Read the Globe and keep posted. The Mt. Zion Baptist Church is making large preparations for grand rally the first Sunday in March. This rally will be known as the Red, White and Blue Rally and a big time is expected. Mrs. Dona Bate and Wm. Smith represent the White. Mrs. R. O. Laws and Miss Katie Norman represent Blue. Mr. Jenkins and Mrs. Kizzie Neal the Red. Rev. Wm. Jenkins is the promoter of this rally. The Butter Roll and Jelly Club met at Mrs. Minnie Holloway last Friday evening. For the news read the Globe.

WILLIAMSPORT NOTES.
Rev. N. Smith made a business trip to Chattanooga Wednesday. He spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Basil Cross, and returned Thursday evening. Quite a number of the farmers farmers spent the first Monday in Columbia, buying and selling mules. Miss Maud Williams made a flying trip to Nashville Friday. She returned Sunday, reporting a grand time. Mrs. Alderson Whites left for Franklin Saturday, where she will spend several days with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell. Sunday was made a glorious day by celebrating the Allen C. E. League. Rev. N. Smith preached an able sermon for the occasion and many hearts were made to rejoice by the words that were spoken by him. Long will the sermon live in the hearts of those who heard it. Rev. N. Smith was master of ceremonies. The program was carried out to the letter. The speakers of the day: Master Porter Hudson, Misses Sophie Crowe, Myrtle Watkins, L. B. Green, E. L. Wainwright, Mr. H. P. Smith, Mrs. Idella Hall, Mrs. A. M. Russell and Mrs. L. C. Strayhorn. The speakers were at their best. We thank Mrs. A. L. Watkins, organist, and chor for their most excellent music. Mrs. S. E. Bowser and Mrs. James Shipn were the guests of Alex. Gant, also Mrs. Robert Russell Friday and Saturday. Misses M. E. Greenfield and Beulah made a pleasant call to see Miss Austin Shipp Saturday morning. Misses Pearl Mal Webb, Mattie and Lillian Wainwright, of Water Valley, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Caroline Hele. Miss Annie Gant spent Saturday night with Miss Myrtle Watkins. They report a delightful time. Mrs. John Hutcherson entertained at 4 o'clock dinner, Mrs. H. E. Russell and little daughter, of Columbia, Mrs. Alex. Sharp, Misses Bettie and Annie Gant, also Mrs. Henry Gant, Misses Myrtle and Pokie Watkins, Mr. Frank Williams, M. M. Thomas and Mr. Rolly Dodson, of Santa Fee.

JASPER NOTES.
Miss Jennie Nash, of Pikeville, was was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Bridgetan, two weeks. She will leave this evening for her home. Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Shockley spent a few days in Chattanooga last week and left for Whiteville last Saturday and returned home Monday morning. Mrs. Sadie Shockley, of Whitwell, met the Star last Saturday evening. We had an interesting meeting. Mrs. Brown McReynolds and Mrs. Mason and her daughter, of Winchester, Tenn., were the guests of Mrs. Joe Mayberry last Sunday, and also the guests of Mr. Thomas Love, Mr. Brown McReynolds has bought a lot and an eight-room house on Mill street, and moved into it last Monday. Mr. McReynolds is a one-armed man, of knowledge and of sterling ability. He is a young citizen, but can fill the place of the oldest. Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Roberson were the guests of their sister, Mrs. A. Bek. Mr. R. B. Roberson and Mr. S. F. Cotter went to South Pittsburg Friday night.

NORTH FARMINGTON NOTES.
We are certainly glad to know that little Master W. B. Smith, who has been very ill for about two months, is improving nicely. He went to see his grandfather and grandmother last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Dryden. Mrs. C. P. Boren has been sick for a few days. Mr. Edgar Dysart is getting along nicely. He will be out very soon. Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Turner and little son, George Turner, went to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. John Orr Sunday. Mr. Robert Ewing is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. John D. Orr. Miss Edna Jones and her sister, Alma, spent last Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. John D. Orr, and Thursday night with Mrs. Bruce Copeland. Miss Annie L. Ewing and Miss Gertrude Rucker spent Saturday with Miss Lela Jones and Miss Goldie Allison. Mr. and Mrs. James Laws were the guests of